Digital Edition

Combine the look of a print edition with the interactivity of the web! Digital editions are an exact replica of the print issue but with added digital interactivity such as clickable web links, ad view tracking, and — of course, access to view on a laptop or PC.

Digital editions are sent via email to 15,000+ industry professionals and posted to The NEWS' website for one year. With a variety of sponsorship and interactive options, you can give your company prominent placement in the digital edition or even add animation, video, or audio to your ad.
