

Survey Says...

The president signed an executive order expanding the number of people who qualify for overtime pay. Are you concerned?

Yes, qualifying more salaried workers for overtime would put an undue burden on our business.

46%

No, we have primarily hourly workers with few people on salary.

41%

Not sure.

14%